

2018-2019 Year End Report

Administrator: Nadine McCray (through October 2018)

Acting
Administrator: Helen Behan (after October 2018)

Finance: Linda Canney

Secretary: Andrea Bonnicksen

Membership: Sandra Heathershaw

Program: Helen Behan

Communication: Mary Ross

Community
Connection: Phyllis Keiley-Tyler

Scholarships: Debby Smith, Sue Renhard

Public Policy: Sandra Distelhorst (through October 2018)
Karen Rosebaugh

Foundation A3E

Foundation for the Advancement of Education and Economic Equity
501(c)3 foundation established

Foundation Board:

Helen Behan, president; Linda Canney, treasurer; Andrea Bonnicksen, secretary
Shirley Buono and Eva Mehaffey, board members

Programs

History of the Edmonds Branch

Presentation by Mary Helen Roberts, Karen Rosebaugh and Sandra Distelhorst
Public Policy and the AAUW mission

Presentation by Anu Taranath
“Not Just for Kids: How Children’s Literature Inspires Bold Conversations”

Presentation by DeLancey Lane on her career in AAUW

Presentation by Renee Reed of 6 Movements Fitness Studio on balance and fall prevention

Presentation by Karen Rosebaugh on Lobby Day, January 29th

A fashion show presented by Seattle Children's Hospital volunteers on women in history using clothes from their vintage fashion collection during the March Tea and Fundraiser

Presentation by Lori Cross on Navigating the Health Care System

Presentation by Boeing engineer Lauren Agte on her career in a STEM field

Awards

Named Grant Honorees:

Helen Behan, Linda Canney, Sandra Heathershaw, Deborah Smith, Beth Wood

Scholarships

Edmonds School District Scholarship presented by Debby Smith to Tharu Lansakaranayake

EdCC Scholarship presented by Lori Cross to Madison Brumbaugh

Activities

Expanding Your Horizons (co-sponsored with Edmonds Community College)

Holiday Brunch and Auction

March Tea and Fundraiser

Diversity Book Group

Bridge Group

Branch Retreat

Lobby Day