

[2019-2020]
Year End Report

President:	Karen Rosebaugh (through November 2019)
Interim President:	Anne Penny (after November 2019)
Finance:	Linda Canney
Secretary:	Jodi Forsell
Membership:	Sandra Heathershaw
Program:	Helen Behan
Communication:	Mary Ross
Community Outreach:	Phyllis Keiley-Tyler
Development and Fundraising:	Beth Wood
Public Policy:	Sandra Distelhorst

Foundation A3E

Foundation for the Advancement of Education and Economic Equity
501(C)3 Foundation established

Foundation Board:

Sandra Distelhorst
Jodi Forsell
Judy Prince

Note: A number of meetings, programs and activities were cancelled or held online March through June 2020, due to Covid-19 epidemic restrictions.

Programs:

Chris Hudyma, EdCC director of organizational development and employee training, spoke on effective teamwork.

AAUW's public policy positions and priorities were presented and discussed through the Policy Café format.

Mayumi Tsutakawa presented a Humanities Washington program on "Washington's Undiscovered Feminists" in a joint program with AAUW Seattle Branch.

Marilyn Watkins, policy director with the Economic Opportunity Institute, talked about pay equity and family and medical leave.

The passage of the 19th amendment was commemorated.

Reitha Weeks, a biologist specializing in genetics and biochemical research, gave a Zoom presentation on her experiences in the STEM field.

The annual branch retreat was held via Zoom.

Scholarship Winner:

Keren Seare, 2020 High School Stem Scholarship winner

Activities:

Holiday Luncheon and Auction

Diversity Book Group

Bridge Group

Lobby Day

Coffee and Conversation

Expanding Your Horizons

Developed by Edmonds College as an online event, with the support of Edmonds SnoKing Branch