

AAUW advances
gender equity for women and girls
through research, education, and advocacy

In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks an inclusive membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, geographical location, national origin, race, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, or socio-economic status.

Membership in AAUW is open to all graduates who hold an associate, bachelors, or higher degree from a college or university.

Edmonds SnoKing Branch welcomes members from south Snohomish and north King Counties, Everett, and Marysville.

AAUW: What We Do

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization with more than 170,000 members and supporters across the United States, with 1,000 local branches and 800 college and university partners.

For over 130 years, AAUW has worked to improve the lives of millions of women and their families through:

- Research on gender equity issues in education and the workplace
- Leveling the playing field for women and girls in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics
- Advocacy for policies that advance equity for women and girls
- Funding for educational opportunities for women

Edmonds SnoKing Branch

The Edmonds SnoKing Branch supports AAUW's mission through our projects and activities, including:

- Partnership with Edmonds College
- Co-sponsoring the annual Expanding Your Horizons conference for girls in grades 8-12 to explore STEM careers
- Working with the League of Women Voters on voter registration and candidate forms
- Annual scholarships and STEM scholar recognition
- Support for students to attend the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders

Branch Activities

We are an engaged and energetic group who enjoy meeting, working, and socializing with each other. Our activities include:

- Regular programs with informative speakers
- Diversity Book Group, to read and discuss books emphasizing different cultural experiences
- Special events such as theater going, museums, lectures, and dining out
- Coffee and Conversation, an informal get-together
- Bridge group that meets once a month for a social, noncompetitive game
