AAUW: Who We Are

The American Association of University Women is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization with more than 170,000 members and supporters across the United States, with 1,000 local branches and 800 college and university partners.

For over 130 years, AAUW has worked to improve the lives of millions of women and their families through:

- Research on gender equity issues in education and the workplace
- Leveling the playing field for women and girls in STEM fields
- Advocating for policies that advance equity for women and girls
- Funding for educational opportunities for women

Edmonds SnoKing Branch

The Edmonds SnoKing Branch supports AAUW's mission through our projects and activities, including:

- Partnership with Edmonds College
- Co-sponsoring the annual Expanding Your Horizons conference for girls in grades 8-12 to explore STEM careers
- Working with the League of Women Voters on voter registration and candidate forums
- Annual scholarships and STEM scholar recognition
- Support for students to attend the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL)

Branch Activities

We are an engaged and energetic group who enjoy meeting, learning, working, and socializing with each other. Our activities include:

- Regular programs with informative speakers
- Diversity Book Group to read and discuss books emphasizing different cultural experiences
- Special events such as theater going, concerts, lectures, and dining out
- Coffee and Conversation, an informal get-together
- Caring & Sharing projects in our communities
